

FREC AND LESLEY U.

Ph.D. Cohort Program

We are excited to announce a partnership between French River Education Center and Lesley University to offer a special FREC Cohort for their doctoral degree in Educational Leadership.

Whether you are interested in school /district leadership or increasing your capacity as a teacher-leader, this program will put you on the cutting edge of educational work in the 21st Century.

Come hear about this wonderful opportunity and how a Central Mass Cohort hosted at FREC can support you in getting your doctoral degree.

Interested in training to become part of the next generation of school leaders? Want to expand your impact on the culture and meaning of schooling?

Come to an information session and learn more details about this exciting opportunity!

Information Session:

Wed November 6, 2019
